ABOUT ME

I am a third-year student majoring in Artificial Intelligence at FPT University in Vietnam, where I have developed a strong foundation in mathematics and computer science. My passion for Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning fuels my academic pursuits and research initiatives. I aspire to pursue a PhD to become a leading Machine Learning researcher. Through my work, I aim to contribute meaningfully to modern technology, tackling complex challenges and creating innovative solutions that leave a lasting impact on the industry.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE
